

The 2-day Old Town itinerary

Art and a long dinner on day one; shopping, spa, and a night out on day two.

14241 N 54th Street, Scottsdale, AZ 85254 · Old Town is 11 miles south, about 18 minutes down Scottsdale Road. Rideshare runs $18–30 each way.

DAY 1

Galleries, gardens, and a long patio dinner

9:00 a.m. Breakfast at the house, then drive down
18 minutes south. Park free in the Civic Center garage.

10:00 a.m. Scottsdale Arts District
Main Street and Marshall Way. A two-hour wander, not a march.

12:30 p.m. Lunch on Fifth Avenue
Order the Sonoran-style something and sit outside.

2:00 p.m. SMoCA, Civic Center, Old Adobe Mission
The historic few blocks in one easy loop.

3:30 p.m. Back to the house
Pool time and the firepit. You earned the break.

7:00 p.m. Rideshare to a long patio dinner
Book the table a week out for a weekend.

DAY 2

Shopping, spa, and a night out

8:30 a.m. Coffee on Main Street
Then the Saturday Farmers Market on Brown Avenue (Oct–May) if it's a weekend.

10:00 a.m. Fashion Square and Scottsdale Quarter
Neiman Marcus, Gucci, and Louis Vuitton at the Square; daily luxury a short drive north at the Quarter.

12:30 p.m. Lunch, then a spa half-day
A Quarter patio for lunch. Book the earliest available slot at a resort spa if you planned ahead.

4:00 p.m. Back to the house
Pool and a nap before the night out.

7:30 p.m.

Entertainment District

Rooftop bars and a late dinner. Reserve a table on event weeks.

11:30 p.m.

Rideshare home

Two days, two rides home, zero parking headaches — exactly why you base in North Scottsdale.
